

I oppose the weakening of Indiana's telephone privacy law as it seems to be working just the way I would like it to be working for our family.